

DR. Dan Turner

Dan is the founding pastor of Northwest Community Church in the middle of Washington, D.C. The church was restarted from a 65 year old church nearing death. He led the congregation through a full closure in 2006, built a launch team, and re- launched the church several months later. Since the restart, attendance has more than quadrupled, and the church is now actively involved in ministry in their local neighborhoods. Dan earned his Master of Divinity from Anderson Seminary School of Theology and his Doctor of Ministry from Wesley Seminary. Before accepting the call into ministry, he conducted research for the Federal Highway Administration.
