

OSYC BREAKOUT SESSIONS

SR HIGH TRACKS

Trust In The Lord

Having trust issues? Trusting people is one thing. Trusting Jesus is totally different. This session will help students learn some practical ways to learn how to trust Jesus in life.

Your Heart, Your Understanding, And Your Ways

Intentionality is everything. This is especially true when it comes to following Jesus in obedience and submission. This session will help students understand how to take responsibility when it comes to being intentional with their faith and discerning their own hearts.

Straight Paths

Is decision making difficult? Not decisions like Chipotle or Raising Cane's. Decisions that will have a big impact on life. This session will help students with decision making and how to seek the best discernment in those decisions

JR HIGH TRACKS

God Knows Your Heart

People tend to judge the character and worth of others by looking at outward appearances. But God has the unique ability to see inside a person. God knows who we are because God knows your heart.

God Knows Your Mind

Thoughts are the most private parts of our human experience. But God always knows what we are thinking; He knows everything about us because God knows your mind.

God Knows Your Purpose

One of the oldest questions known to humans might very well be, "Why am I here?" Something deep within us longs to know the meaning of life. God knows the answer to this question because God knows your purpose.

STUDENT LEADERSHIP TRACKS

Be A Leader Now

Leadership is not limited by age. Young people throughout history have made a difference by stepping out and taking the mantle of leadership. This session will help students understand the importance of being a student leader in the local setting TODAY.

Leadership Pipeline

There are many opportunities available to student leaders to grow in their leadership abilities. Tapping into those opportunities are a plus. This session will help student leaders know what leadership development opportunities are available in and around Ohio.

YOUTH LEADERS TRACK

There will be a session specifically designed for Youth Leaders. Andy Hoover will be leading this time of learning, stretching, and processing. The topic of this session will focus on resiliency in ministry.
