

Rev. NANCY BLANKENSHIP

2023 BIO

Nancy has been involved in ministry for most of her life. Between growing up in the church, singing and playing piano, serving as church secretary, janitor, worship pastor and bookkeeper, the church has become a second home for her.

Nancy followed her call into vocational ministry in early 2000 and was ordained in October 2002. She currently serves COGO Ministries as Business Administrator and New Covenant Church as Finance Administrator.

Outside the church, Nancy has a love of sharing her home with others by hosting bible studies and dinner parties. Cooking dinners that make people smile and feel loved is not just a hobby but a passion. She also loves taking long sunny day boat rides with friends and family anywhere there is deep water! Preferably in Tennessee with the grandbabies!

Nancy and her husband, Jim, of 38 years reside in Carlisle, Ohio and have 2 grown children and 3 absolutely adorable granddaughters.
