

Doug Walter

Doug Walter is the Executive Pastor at First Church of God in Tallmadge. He has been involved in youth/student ministry for thirty-two years. In 1987, he started out at Maple Grove Church of God as Past

Bio for Doug Walter

Doug Walter is the Executive Pastor at First Church of God in Tallmadge. He has been involved in youth/student ministry for thirty-two years. In 1987, he started out at Maple Grove Church of God as Pastor of Christian Education and Youth. In February 1992, Doug accepted the position of Pastor of Christian Education and Church Administration at First Church of God in Tallmadge. During his tenure there, he has fulfilled several positions as the church's ministry evolved. In 2004, he felt God's leading to take on Student Ministry fulltime. With changes in church staff, in 2012 Doug became Family Life Pastor. In 2022, he became the Executive Pastor. No matter what position he has fulfilled, his love and passion for students has been consistent. Even in his current role, Doug continues to serve First Church as an adult youth counselor.

Doug was ordained in Anderson, Indiana, October 1991. He has served on the of Ohio Ministries Board Christian Education and O-Net, led T.A.G. workshops for national offices, IYC planning team, led conferences at IYC-Buffalo, and has given local churches instruction on how to provide a safe environment for children/youth through policy, background checks and training. Doug is most known for serving as a member of Northeast Ohio Student Ministries for nineteen years.

Doug received his BA in Religious Studies and Sociology from Anderson University in 1987 with a minor in Church Music. He received his Masters of Christian Education from Ashland Theological Seminary in 1994.

Doug met his wife Susan while pastoring in Anderson, Indiana. They have been married for almost 32 years. Their life together has been full of serving in ministry side by side wherever the Lord leads. Doug enjoys photography, hiking, riding his motorcycle, woodworking and chainsaw carving.

-----
Updated February 19, 2024

or of Christian Education and Youth. In February 1992, Doug accepted the position of Pastor of Christian Education and Church Administration at First Church of God in Tallmadge. During his tenure there, he has fulfilled several positions as the church's ministry evolved. In 2004, he felt God's leading to take on Student Ministry fulltime. With changes in church staff, in 2012 Doug became Family Life Pastor. In 2022, he became the Executive Pastor. No matter what position he has fulfilled, his love and passion for students has been consistent. Even in his current role, Doug continues to serve First Church as an adult youth counselor.

Doug was ordained in Anderson, Indiana, October 1991. He has served on the of Ohio Ministries Board Christian Education and O-Net, led T.A.G. workshops for national offices, IYC planning team, led conferences at IYC-Buffalo, and has given local churches instruction on how to provide a safe environment for children/youth through policy, background checks and training. Doug is most known for serving as a member of Northeast Ohio Student Ministries for nineteen years.

Doug received his BA in Religious Studies and Sociology from Anderson University in 1987 with a minor in Church Music. He received his Masters of Christian Education from Ashland Theological Seminary in 1994.

Doug met his wife Susan while pastoring in Anderson, Indiana. They have been married for almost 32 years. Their life together has been full of serving in ministry side by side wherever the Lord leads. Doug enjoys photography, hiking, riding his motorcycle, woodworking and chainsaw carving.