

Rev. Dr. Jake Zaske

Rev. Dr. Jake Zaske is the Lead Pastor of Hope Chapel Kansas City, co-founder of Trellis Churches, and co-state pastor of Kansas State Church of God Ministries. He is also honored to serve on a variety of church and nonprofit boards and occasionally as a church consultant. He previously pastored at churches in England, California, and New York City and holds his Masters and Doctor of Ministry from Capital

Seminary and Graduate School at Lancaster Bible College. One of the great joys of his life is encouraging and empowering the next generation of local church leaders. Jake is married to Sarah and has two children, Caleb, and Grace. They proudly reside in the Kansas City metropolitan area.
